Are the health
exchanges
open
again?

Tim Gleason & Dave Root

Yes! The Idaho and Washington state health exchanges have re-opened in response to President Biden's public health emergency order due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

Your Health Idaho is open through March 31st and the Washington Health Benefit Exchange is open until May 15th.

SPECIAL ENROLLMENT PERIOD applies to any Idaho or Washington resident seeking health insurance coverage. Individuals shopping for coverage during this special enrollment period can select coverage and may qualify for premium subsidy (reduced premiums) to begin the first of the following month. Even if you did not have previous coverage or did not lose coverage during the pandemic, you can enroll now for health insurance coverage.
